FAQ'S

What are the advantages of Annual Returns at CIPC?

A | Staying compliant: To apply at any Government Institution or Regulating (e.g. CSD), you need to ensure that your Company is always compliant with CIPC. This will ensure that there are no delays when applying for a business loan as bank accounts can be frozen due to non-compliance at CIPC.

B | No penalties or deregistration: Submitting your returns at CIPC every year, will prevent you from having to pay penalty fees for late submission as it is required by law. Most importantly, it will also keep your company status Active and prevent your Company from going into a Deregistration status at CIPC, which might result in suppliers revoking your credit facility.

Is it compulsory for my Company or Close Corporation (CCs) to file an Annual Return in South Africa?

Yes, ALL Companies and Close Corporations (CCs) are required by the South African law to file their annual returns with the CIPC on an annual basis and also within a prescribed time period. We can assist you with this process, even if you have not done so over the last few years.

Is it possible to stop the deregistration process by filing outstanding Annual Returns?

If deregistration is due to non-compliance with annual returns, it can be cancelled by filing all outstanding return while in that status. However, once it changes to "Final Deregistration", a formal reinstatement is required.
